

the broadcast keeps Jesus Christ in the fore front of my mind and daily living. it is not just about being a good person but your daily living and relating to others is transformed by your choice to change your life style to love others as your self. change comes from your beliefs the Bible shows every sttep of how to live your life. we must live in this world. God gave us this world to take care and enjoy but there is a way to do it his way.